

The Daily Courant.

Friday, April 2. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 31.

Warsaw, March 2.

THEY Write from Lemberg of the 22d of last Month, that the Palatine of Belz, Great General of the Crown, who was not expected till the 18th, arriv'd there the 16th: That he had sent Circular Letters to all the Troops to exhort them to stand by the Confederacy, which they had sworn to support, and to confine and send Prisoners to him all those who intended to change Sides. He was going to Assemble the Tribunal of the Finances to regulate the Payment of the Army. The Troops nevertheless commit great Disorders in their Quarters, and observe not a more exact Discipline than the Muscovites. Count Tarlo, Great Steward of the Crown, who was sent by King Stanislaus to Negotiate an Accommodation with the Party of the Confederacy of Sendomir, was arriv'd at Jaroslavia, where he had a Conference with the Great Ensign of the Crown, who had declar'd to him, that they would consent to acknowledge King Stanislaus, upon Condition that those who had been turn'd out of their Employments and Offices since the Abdication of King Augustus, were restor'd to them; that K. Stanislaus would Disband the Troops he had rais'd contrary to the Laws of the Kingdom, because there ought to be no other than those of the Republick; and that he would oblige the Swedes intirely to evacuate Poland and Lithuania, to the end a free Diet of Pacification may be assembled and held. The Great Chamberlain of the Crown exacts of each House in Cujavia a Contribution of five Crowns, which he employs in raising a Regiment of Dragoons for that Prince.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 6.

Warsaw, March 17. The Swedes have not yet been able to pursue their March towards Muscovy, by reason of the ill Weather and for want of Forage for their Cavalry: And the Muscovites seem resolv'd to wait for them behind the Boristhenes, where they have to that End thrown up very strong Intrenchments. Besides they have Magazines on their Frontiers very well provided with all things necessary, whereas on the contrary the Swedes have none at all. King Stanislaus, who was at Geranoway, 8 Leagues from Wilna, cannot long find subsistence there for his Troops, all the Country having been ruin'd by the Muscovites: He himself is gone to Wilna, where he has call'd a Diet.

From the Harlem Courant, dated April 7.

Dantzick, March 26. The Swedish Army continues at Smorgan, 12 Leagues from Wilna, expecting the rest of their Infantry, most of which has already pass'd the Osmano; however, in all Appearance their Army will not begin to march till the Grass be grown in the Country. The Czar is still near Polezko and Mohilow with the Gros of his Army and 60 Pieces of Cannon: And the Generals Ronoz and Golze with 15000 Dragoons, 10 Leagues from thence, in order to joyn him in case of need; or in case the Swedes should endeavour to go to Volhinia, to prevent their so doing. King Stanislaus with his Body of Poles, suffers for want of Forage and Provision as well as the Swedes. The Army of the Crown has Orders to be ready to march at first Warning, to joyn the Muscovites. General Mazeppa has pass'd the River Boristhenes. A great Difference is arisen between the Princes Sapieha and Wiefnowiski, the King of Sweden having promis'd the Office of Field-Marshal of Lithuania to the first of them, and King Stanislaus has to the other.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 5.

Lemberg, March 7. Count Billardy, who came hither the 4th Instant, had been several times in Conference with the Field-Marshal Siniawski, and is since gone to the Czar of Muscovy: 'Tis thought he had some Instructions from the Emperour, because he is going into the Service of his Imperial Majesty. All the Endeavours King Stanislaus has us'd to bring over that Field-Marshal to his Interest, have prov'd fruitless. Collonel Swinzarski, who 'tis said held a secret Correspondence with the King of Sweden, and the better to conceal it brought some Swedes Prisoners to the Field-Marshal, was at the same time put into Prison by his Order, and loaded with Irons: To Day that General has sent Orders to all the Officers to repair to their Regiments, and to hold themselves in readiness to march upon the first Notice. He will likewise go himself to the Army, but what his Designs are is not known. General Rubinsky is with his Body near Pinzezna 3 Leagues from Warsaw, and has receiv'd Orders from the Field-Marshal to march and attack the Waywode of Kiow, who is with some Troops in the Waywodship of Plosko, and to joyn afterwards the Army of the Crown. M. Wiserinski, Collonel in the Forces under General Smiegielski, is taken Prisoner by General Ribinski. Prince Ragotszy has bought the Lordship of Jaroslaw, and several other Estates belonging to the Family of Sobietzky, and Lubomirsky.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated April 6.

Mittau, March 20. By Letters from Lithuania we hear, that the King of Sweden at the Head of five Swedish Regiments, and of 1500 Walachians, had pursu'd the Muscovites from Grodno, for 30 Leagues together, till he came to Sworsoni, where he arriv'd the 4th of this Month, and intends to stay till his other Troops come up, there being a sufficient Quantity of Forage and Provisions in that Neighbourhood, the Muscovites not having laid Waste the Country, because it belongs to M. Pucci, and other Lords of the Confederacy of Sendomir. A Party of Poles have taken three Waggons loaded with Money belonging to Prince Menzikoff, and kill'd 30 Muscovite Dragoons that guarded it. The Muscovite Brigadier, whom the Czar had put into Prison, for not having well defended the Bridge of Grodno, has found means to escape, and get to the King of Sweden's Camp, where he is well receiv'd. General Lewenhaupt continues in this Town, but is preparing to march with his Troops in a few Days to joyn the Army of the King of Sweden. We hear that the Swedes in Finland have by Surprise taken Peterbourg, a strong Fortress belonging to the Muscovites: That the Inhabitants of Dorpt have been carry'd to Moscow with their Wives and Children to the Number of 1400 Souls: and seeing the Muscovites are carrying away the Cannon and Ammunition of that Place, together with the Effects of the Inhabitants, 'tis believ'd they intend to demolish and destroy it by Fire.

Berlin,

Berlin, March 27. We have Letters from Narva which say, that the Swedes have taken the important Fortrefs of Petersbourg by the means of some of the Soldiers of the Regiment form'd of Saxon Prisoners, which is in Finland, who on pretence of being Deserters got into the Place, and open'd the Gates to the Swedes.
